At Tuesday MOPS!!*

Andrea is the newest member of Calvary's leadership team, beginning as the director of creative arts in January of 2006. A gifted leader, Andrea is responsible for the weekend service programming and production elements and teams. She oversees the creative and the technical aspects of services, building and leading volunteer and staff teams.

This Southern California native returned home to become part of Calvary. Prior to that, she was in senior leadership at Willow Creek Community Church in suburban Chicago. Her most recent role was Area Leader for a quarter of the church's congregation. She previously had served as director of Willow's Women's Ministries and as the director of the Early Childhood area in the children's ministry.

Andrea is a popular speaker at conferences around the country. She and her husband Rex have three children, two in college and one in high school. Rex is the former director of small groups at Willow Creek, as well as an Area Leader.
